Gesture

Bold brushstrokes heightened by the movements, energy and texture, all gracefully balanced. The composition helps to emphasize Andrea Boldrini's self-confidence in using colors and expressing his unique painting style.

Andrea's mastery not only of the aesthetics of the colors but of the thoughts behind each movement of his brush stroke.

He paints with these free and bold movements, making a statement through colors and brushstrokes, all in a simple gesture.

Andrea Boldrini - Italy

Born in Naples with parents from North Italy, at age three, Andrea's family moved to Piedmont. When in his teens he already started the first group exhibitions under the auspices of the National Union Artists in the prestigious hall of the Palazzo Ducale in Genoa. In 1974 he enrolled in the Academy of Fine Arts of Brera in Milan major in painting. After graduation from Brera Andrea continues to paint. In his oil works he addresses issues related to man, loneliness and existence. In particular, he lays focuses on the relationship between man and the world, and how the man feels as being part of the universe. Alongside with his painting career, Andrea works in the artistic field with fashion designers in Milan , also as assistant to Mauro Pagano, the stage designer of the Paris Opera House and La Scala in Milan .

At present Andrea lives and works in Milan.

Through the use of colors I try to convey to the observers sensations, feelings and moods. Just as the writer uses words or the musician uses notes.

I use oil colors, acrylics, inks with rigor and a lot of thoughts before painting. All these can serve to achieve my aim of involving and inspiring the viewers.
